Dr. Jose V. Sartarelli, the sixth chancellor and ninth leader of the University North Carolina Wilmington, is committed to attracting the best students, faculty and staff to UNCW by supporting continued success in applied learning, community engagement and academic research. Under his leadership, UNCW is focused on diversity and globalization, ethics and integrity, and excellence and innovation. He inspired the campus community to collaborate on a strategic plan to guide the university’s growth through 2021. Chancellor Sartarelli, who took office July 1, 2015, came from West Virginia University, where he served as the Milan Puskar Dean of the College of Business and Economics for five years as well as WVU’s first chief global officer. Before transitioning into higher education, he spent three decades in international business.

A native of Brazil, he received a Bachelor of Business Administration in marketing (1973) from the São Paulo School of Business Administration (Fundação Getulio Vargas). He then attended Michigan State University as a Fulbright Scholar, earning an MBA in marketing (1975) and a Doctorate in Business Administration (1979).
