

Criteria and selection process for Gabriella Hieb Scholarship in Foreign Languages & Literatures

Application deadline: March 31. Turn in all materials to Leutze 279.

The recipient must have been accepted into the College of Arts and Sciences Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at UNCW and be registered as a full-time student taking twelve or more credit hours. This scholarship will be used to provide financial support up to the cost of tuition, fees and books as funding permits. This is a merit scholarship. The recipient must have achieved a GPA of 3.67 and must maintain that average to be eligible for renewal.

Recipients shall possess a demonstrated historical record of community/public service, and/or volunteerism in support of non-profit organizations or programs. Recipients shall further manifest their continuing commitment to perform public or community service and/or volunteerism throughout their undergraduate tenure at UNCW. A recipient's failure to demonstrate the continuing commitment to public/community service or volunteerism during an active scholarship period may result in the ineligibility or non-renewal of the of the recipient's scholarship.

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures will convene a committee of professors and shall select the scholarship recipient using the criteria indicated above and using the standard selection process as approved by the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. In accordance with university policy the Director of the Financial Aid and Veterans Services Offices makes all disbursements.
