

Retirement Planning Webinars

TSERS members nearing retirement now have an additional resource for retirement planning information — retirement planning webinars. We understand that everyone cannot take time to attend one of our retirement planning conferences in person.

These interactive, online conferences will provide an orientation for new members, pre-retirement planning information for members closer to retirement, and educational information for personnel officers and others who handle retirement matters.

To attend a webinar, members must register. See the schedule below for upcoming webinars and links to register:
