

RN to BSN: Non-Nursing Required Courses

Transfer Credit Equivalents, FAQs, and Program Information can be found here.

Composition

- 1) ENG 101 (College Writing and Reading I)
- 2) ENG 201 (College Writing and Reading II)
 - Or the equivalent course requirements.

Lifetime Wellness

- 1) PED 101 (Physical Activity and Wellness)
 - UNCW's PED 101 includes both physical activity and wellness.
 - This course can potentially be waived if you are over 55 years of age, or if you have military service that included Basic Training.

Mathematics and Statistics

- 1) STT 210 (Introduction to Statistics with Applications in the Health Sciences Application), OR one of the following: STT 215, PSY 225, QMM 280

World Languages and Cultures (Proficiency at 201 level or higher)

- 1) SPN 120 (Fundamentals of Spanish)
- 2) SPN 201 (Intermediate Spanish I)
- 3) Or the equivalent course requirements.

Aesthetic, Interpretive, and Literary Perspectives

- 1) ENG 110 (Introduction to Literature)
- 2) THR 121 (Introduction to Theatre)
- 3) Or the equivalent course requirements.

Historical and Philosophical Approaches

- 1) HST 105 (American History: United States), OR the equivalent course requirements.
- 2) PAR 215 (Bioethics), OR PAR 101, 115, 205, 211

Scientific Approaches to the Natural World

- 1) BIO 201 (Principles of Biology: Cells)
- 2) CHM 101 (General Chemistry)

Understanding Human Institutions and Behaviors

- 1) PSY 105 (Introductory Psychology)
- 2) ECN 125 (Survey of Economics), OR ECN 221, OR SOC 105

RN-BS Biology Requirement

- 1) BIO 240 (Human Anatomy and Physiology I)
- 2) BIO 241 (Human Anatomy and Physiology II)
- 3) BIO 246 (Microbiology)

RN-BS Lifespan Development Requirement

- 1) PSY 223 (Lifespan Development)