

Special Education Adapted Curriculum Program of Study Recommended Sequence of Courses

- Students should follow University Studies requirements as specified in the degree audit. However, to satisfy program requirements COM 104 must be taken.
- All 300 level SED courses have either field placements or required labs.
- Students should attempt to follow the course sequence, however, unless otherwise listed, some SED courses are currently being offered Fall and Spring semesters. Likewise, some SED courses are only offered one semester per year. Check with your advisor to ensure proper course sequence.
- You must be admitted to the WCE in order to enroll in EDN/SED courses numbered higher than EDN/SED 303.
- Passing scores on the Praxis II Specialty Area Tests must be on file with the Associate Dean for Academic and Student Affairs in order to recommend you for licensure. You are strongly encouraged to take the required tests prior to internship. Visit www.ets.org.
- A MINIMUM OF 124 HOURS REQUIRED FOR GRADUATION
