

SELF-GUIDED TOUR

THE UNIVERSITY of NORTH CAROLINA Wilmington

Welcome to UNCW! Please use this guide along with the Campus Map provided to navigate your self-guided tour of campus. Included are buildings that our campus tours typically visit.

James Hall (JA)

Home to the Office of Admissions, the Office of the Registrar, and the Graduate School, James Hall will be your main point of contact as you go through the application process. Student-led tours of campus leave from James Hall twice-daily Monday thru Friday.

Visit www.uncw.edu/admissions for information about admission to UNCW.

DePaolo Hall (DE)

DePaolo Hall holds the following student services:

- The Abrons Student Health Center and Pharmacy
- The CARE office stands for Collaboration for Assault Response & Education.
- The Crossroads office offers substance abuse prevention and education programs.
- The Counseling Center, which provides counseling to student free of charge.
- The Disability Resource Center serves as a liaison between the student and the university to determine the most appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities.
- The University Learning Center, the Writing Center, and the Math Lab offer free tutoring to students.
- University Testing Services

Randall Library (RL)

Randall Library serves the entire Seahawk community and is the size of two football fields stacked one on top of the other.

The first floor is designed for group study and features:

- Port City Java coffee shop
- Mac and PC friendly computer lab
- TAC (Technology Assistant Center) – a free service for students that provides troubleshooting for computer issues, computer and equipment rentals, and more!

The second floor of Randall Library is designed for quiet study with:

- Students desks in a cubicle-style configuration
- Group study rooms
- The Honors College
- Women's Studies and Resource Center

Wagoner Dining Hall (WA)

Wagoner Hall is the primary food service area for students and faculty. This facility offers a variety of cutting-edge American entrees, ethnically-inspired foods, vegetarian selections and more, all prepared right before your eyes. UNCW is dedicated in its efforts to promote sustainability with over 18% of the food locally purchased. Graphics inside Wagoner inform consumers about the farms that provide the food served, as well as other sustainability initiatives.

Chancellor's Walk

Take a walk down Chancellor's Walk, our  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile academic highway where most academic buildings are located.

Bear Hall

The departments of Philosophy & Religion and Sociology & Criminology are located here. It was one of the first academic buildings built on campus.

Morton Hall

Home to the departments of English and History, Morton Hall also houses Bryan auditorium, one of the largest lecture halls on campus.

Leutze Hall

Named for our former Chancellor Dr. James R. Leutze, Leutze Hall houses the departments of World Languages and Cultures, International Studies, Public and International Affairs, and Communication Studies.

CIS Building

The Computer Information Systems Building houses the concentrations of Operations Management and Information Systems for the Cameron School of Business, as well as the Computer Science Department.

Cameron Hall

Home to the Cameron School of Business where Business Administration students can choose from 12 business concentrations.

Dobo Hall

Dobo Hall is home to the departments of Biology, Marine Biology, Chemistry, and Biochemistry.

Teaching Lab

Home to the departments of Psychology and Environmental Studies, the Teaching Lab is the newest academic building on campus. There are a number of labs used for psychological research in this building.

McNeil Hall

McNeil Hall houses UNCW's nursing program. The building houses classrooms and professors' offices as well as simulation labs for ER, OR, and Home health and Hospice. It is equipped with hospital-quality equipment.

\*Please note that not all academic buildings are listed above. See the campus map to locate buildings not listed here.***

Residence Halls & Kenan Auditorium are not open for public touring.

SELF-GUIDED TOUR

THE UNIVERSITY of NORTH CAROLINA Wilmington

Student Recreation Center (SRC)

The Student Recreation Center was expanded in 2013 and now features basketball and volleyball courts, racquetball courts, cardio, strength training and weight training equipment, a 25 yard lap pool, an outdoor leisure pool in the shape of Sammy the Seahawk, rock climbing wall, group exercise classrooms, and much more. It also facilitates intramural sports and sport clubs. Seahawk Adventures is also located in the SRC, which hosts outdoor excursions, workshops, and adventure trips.

Fisher Student Center (FSC)

The Herbert and Sylvia Fisher Student Center is named in honor of alumni Herbert (class of 1953) and Sylvia (class of 1950) Fisher, alumni whose university gift helps to sustain the facility. The Varsity Café, the dining area inside the Fisher Student Center, is named in honor of the Varsity, a Wilmington soda shop, grill and pharmacy that Herbert owned and operated from 1953 to 1973. It was the “unofficial” student center for Wilmington College students for many years.

The Fisher Student Center holds:

- Campus Activities & Involvement Center (CAIC), which is the central location for the clubs and student organizations on campus
- Einstein Bros. Bagels, a dining location
- Information Center
- Lumina Theatre, which seats 350 persons and features foreign films, student films, as well as Blockbusters and fan favorites
- Sharky’s Game Room
- UNCW Bookstore
- Dub City Brew (Starbucks)

UNCW Rankings

Top School in the 2016 Military Advanced Education and Transition Guide to Colleges and Universities

Named a Best Southeastern School

The Princeton Review’s List of 2018 Best Colleges

U.S. News and World Report

6th among public universities and 16th overall on list of Best Regional Universities in the South

Ranked as one of Kiplinger’s 100 Best Values in Public Colleges

Fisher University Union (FUU)

The Fisher University Union, which is connected to the Fisher Student Center by a glass-enclosed walkway that offers a panoramic view of the Campus Commons. This building features:

The Career Services Center

- A comprehensive career counseling and resource center dedicated to empowering students and alumni as active participants in their own career development.
- Offer assistance in choosing a major, finding job and internship opportunities, writing a resume, developing interview skills, preparing and applying for graduate school, and much more.

Diversity Offices

- Upperman African American Cultural Center
- Centro Hispano
- LGBTQIA Resource Center

Hawk’s Nest

- Food court-style dining location
- Students can use Food Dollars at this location; Hawk’s Nest also accepts cash and credit.

Other resources include: Passport Services, Seahawk Mail, Student Media Center, P.O.D Market and much more!

Housing and Residence Life

All first-year students are required to live on campus (except residents of Brunswick, Pender, and New Hanover counties). About 40% of the entire Seahawk community lives on-campus. First-year students may take advantage of the opportunity to live in learning-living communities. For upperclassman students, apartment-style, all-inclusive on campus housing is available. We unfortunately cannot accommodate visits to the residence halls. Please visit www.uncw.edu/housing for more detailed information regarding housing options including pictures and virtual tours. For students planning to live off-campus, UNCW’s PERCH at www.uncw.edu/PERCH offers resources for finding housing and staying connected.

Thank you for visiting the University of North Carolina Wilmington!

To download our GPS enabled campus map, videos, and photos visit:

www.uncw.edu/virtualtour