

SELF GUIDED TOUR

WELCOME TO UNCW. Use this guide along with the campus map and virtual tour to navigate your self-guided exploration of campus. On your self-guided tour, you'll discover the same buildings our campus tours usually visit. Visit www.uncw.edu/admissions for more information about applying to UNCW.

DePaolo Hall (DE)

DePaolo holds a wealth of student services:

- The Abrons Student Health Center and pharmacy
- The Collaboration for Assault Response & Education (CARE) office provides relationship counseling and abuse resources
- The Counseling Center provides psychiatric counseling and resources free of charge to students
- The Disability Resource Center assists students in procuring accommodations for disabilities
- The University Learning Center, Writing Center and Math Lab offer free tutoring
- University Testing Services provide a secure testing facility for students taking the TEAS, GRE, MCAT and other tests

Randall Library (RL)

Randall Library serves the entire Seahawk family. It's the size of two football fields stacked on top of one another, holds over 500,000 books and stays open 24 hours, 5 days a week with shorter weekend hours.

Floor 1 is perfect for group study:

- Port City Java
- Mac and PC-friendly computer labs
- Group study spaces and rooms
- Technology Assistance Center (TAC)—free services for students to troubleshoot computer issues, rent laptops and other equipment, and more
- iPrint—UNCW's cloud-based printing services
- The Digital Makerspace for student access to emerging technologies like virtual reality, 3D printing/scanning, 360 cameras, development computers and more

Floor 2 is the quiet study floor:

- Individual student desks with whiteboards and charging stations
- Reservable group study conference rooms
- The Honors College
- The Center for the Support of Undergraduate Research and Fellowships
- The Women's Studies and Resource Center
- The Center for Teaching Excellence

ACADEMIC BUILDINGS

Three quarters of a mile long, UNCW's red-brick road is the main thoroughfare of campus. Most academic buildings border this walkway.

Bear Hall

The Departments of Philosophy & Religion and Sociology & Criminology are located here. Bear Hall was one of the first academic buildings on campus.

Morton Hall

Home to the Departments of English and History, as well as Bryan Auditorium, one of the largest lecture halls.

Leutze Hall

Named for former Chancellor Dr. James Leutze, this building is home to the Departments of World Languages & Cultures, International Studies, Public & International Affairs and Communication Studies.

Computer Information Systems (CIS) Building

CIS houses the concentrations of Operations Management and Information Systems for the Cameron School of Business. It's also home to the Computer Science Department.

Cameron Hall

Home to the Cameron School of Business. Business Administration students can choose from 13 concentrations.

Watson College of Education

In beautiful Watson, Education majors can choose one of 5 concentrations and get hands-on experience in the Education Lab.

Cultural Arts Building

CAB is not only home to the programs of Theatre, Music, Art & Art History, but also to state-of-the-art theaters, recital halls, art galleries, studio spaces and more.

Dobo Hall

Dobo Hall is home to the Departments of Biology, Marine Biology, Chemistry, and Biochemistry.

Teaching Lab

Home to the Departments of Psychology and Environmental Studies. It houses many labs used for psychological research.

McNeill Hall

Home to the College of Health and Human Services (CHHS) and UNCW's nursing program. In addition to classrooms and offices, McNeill features simulation labs for the ER, OR and home health and hospice.

Student Recreation Center (SRC)

Expanded in 2013, the Student Rec Center is one of the largest campus facilities in the southeast. The facilities house basketball and volleyball courts, racquetball courts, cardio and strength-training equipment, a weight room, a 25-yard lap pool, an outdoor leisure pool, a rock climbing wall, group exercise classrooms, a hanging indoor track and more. It's the home of intramural and club sports, and of the Seahawk Adventures office, which arranges outdoor excursions and trips.

The SRC lobby branches off into several student service offices:

- The Crossroads office, offering substance abuse prevention and education programs
- The Hundley Health Education Center, which coordinates peer education services and the campus dietitian

Fisher Student Center (FSC)

The FSC is named in honor of alumni Herbert ('53) and Sylvia ('50) Fisher, whose university gift helps sustain the facility. The Varsity Cafe dining area is named in honor of the Varsity, a Wilmington soda shop, grill and pharmacy owned by Herbert from 1953 to 1973. The original Varsity was the unofficial student center for Wilmington College students for many years.

The Fisher Student Center is home to:

- The Campus Activities & Involvement Center (CAIC), the central location for 250+ student organizations
- Einstein Bros. Bagels
- The Information Center
- Lumina Theater, playing discounted blockbusters every weekend and special features on weeknights
- Sharky's Box Office & Game Room, full of board games, consoles, pool tables and more
- UNCW's Bookstore
- Dub City Brew (Starbucks)

Housing and Residence Life (HRL)

All first-year students are required to live on campus, except residents of Brunswick, New Hanover and Pender counties. About 40% of the entire Seahawk family lives on campus. First-year students can take advantage of living-learning communities (www.uncw.edu/fyecommunities). For upperclassman students, UNCW offers all-inclusive on-campus apartments.

Unfortunately, we can't accommodate spontaneous visits to residence halls. Please visit www.uncw.edu/housing for more information about housing, including pictures and virtual tours. For more information on off-campus housing, visit the UNCW PERCH at www.uncw.edu/PERCH for resources.
