

Biographical Information for New and Returning Members of the Endowment Board

New Member

Donis Smith

Donis Smith is a Certified Financial Planner with a 25-year career in financial and wealth advisory services. She currently serves as First Vice President - Wealth Management at UBS Financial Services in Wilmington and previously worked at Morgan Stanley in Wilmington. In addition to her professional accomplishments, Ms. Smith is deeply involved with the Wilmington community. She serves as a mentor for the UNCW Cameron Executive Network and the President of the Landfall Foundation. She also volunteers with She-ROCKS, a local non-profit which raises funds to support local cancer patients and research, and with the Women's Impact Network of NHC, a grant-making organization whose goals are to improve our community in the areas of education, environment, health, and the arts.

Ms. Smith has extensive experience with the UNCW Foundation. She currently serves as a Foundation Board member and is a past Chair of the Foundation Board and Chair of the Foundation Finance subcommittee. Ms. Smith has two degrees from UNCW. She completed a B.S. in Marketing in 1984 and earned a Master of Business Administration in 1994.

Returning Board Members

Malcomb Coley

Malcomb Coley is the EY-US Central Growth Market Leader and Charlotte Managing Partner, a US member firm of the global EY organization. In his Growth Market role, Coley oversees the growth of the US-Central core accounts across 22 states, 42 offices and over 16,000 colleagues. As the Charlotte Managing Partner, Coley is responsible for empowering approximately 1,500 colleagues in the Charlotte region with the knowledge and resources needed to reach their highest potential and to best serve their clients. Coley also oversees the recruitment efforts, diversity initiatives, growth of the office, and the office's involvement in community engagement efforts. Coley currently serves on the Board of Directors of several organizations including the Charlotte Regional Business Alliance (Chair 2022), the United Way of Central Carolinas (Chair 2019), First Tee of Greater Charlotte, Belk College of Business Board of Advisors for UNC-Charlotte, the Cameron School of Business Executive Advisory Board, and the Endowment Board for UNCW. In addition, Coley is a member of the 100 Black Men of Atlanta. Coley holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and a Master of Business Administration from UNC Wilmington's Cameron School of Business, as well as an executive management certificate from Northwestern University, and Executive Leadership Program certificate from Harvard University.

Carlton Fisher

Carlton Fisher is the owner and manager of Coastal Realty, a commercial real estate firm in Wilmington. Mr. Fisher has been actively involved in UNCW for many years. He is currently serving in his third term on the UNCW Board of Trustees, and during his tenure has held numerous leadership positions – including Chair of the Business Affairs Committee, Chair of the Audit Committee, and Chair of the External Affairs Committee. In addition, Mr. Fisher is a former member and Chair of UNCW Foundation Board, and also currently serves on the UNCW Endowment Board. Fisher graduated from UNCW with a business degree in 1983.