Annual Security Report

An institutional responsibility

- Required by federal regulations
- Involves offices & departments across campus
- Institutional policies
- Crime statistics for calendar years 2014, 2013, and 2012
- Posted to UPD website
- Notice distributed to current & prospective students & employees
- Statistics submitted to the U.S. Dept. of Education
- Changes for 2015 include added bias categories for hate crimes and listing of unfounded cases

Offense	2014	2013	2012
Domestic Violence	2	0
Dating Violence	4	0
Stalking	6	6

The Violence Against Women Act required “good faith” effort to include figures for 2013. Not required in 2012

Annual Fire Safety Report

- Prepared by UNCW's Department of Environmental Health & Safety
 - Applies to residence hall fire safety and fire safety education
 - Requires reporting of building construction, fire protection systems, drills, regulations and training, improvements as well as actual fires
- <http://uncw.edu/ehs/documents/AnnualFireSafetyReport.pdf>

Annual Fire Safety Report

Select Accomplishments

- Updated University Police's fire alarm response policy
- Collaboration with Wilmington Fire Department on fire safety programming and education
- Evaluation of Central Alarm Reporting System for best practices

2015 Fire Safety Log

- Lists all fire incidents involving injury, death, or property damage or flame outside its intended container

- Two reportable fires – both in kitchen areas with frying
 - Grease fire, University Suite U – limited damage
 - Grease fire, Apartment E – resident received minor burns

- Cooking alarms accounted for more than 60% of all nuisance alarms in residential housing.

- Secondary causes were mechanical or detector lifecycle expiration although e-cigarettes are on the rise.

Summary

- Broad and complex reporting requirements
 - Safe and healthy campus environment remains prevailing priority
 - Jim Koebel, in the Office of General Counsel, giving special attention to compliance
 - Recruiting for Title IX and Clery Compliance Officer
(Recommendation of the UNC General Administration's Campus Security Initiative)

- Safety benefits from strong campus and community collaborations

- Low rates of crime

- Continued monitoring for trends

Hate Crimes

2014 – One case of Intimidation reported on campus that had a sexual orientation bias

2013 – Two incidents on Intimidation reported:
One based on racial bias
One based on national origin

2012 – There were no cases of reported Hate Crimes

Notes:

Violent crimes includes murder, non-negligent homicide, robbery, aggravated assault, sex offenses

Property crimes includes arson, burglary, and motor vehicle theft

Student rate is the number of violations as a percentage of the total student enrollment

Housing rate is the number of violations as a percentage of the total number of students living on campus.

Rates are calculated using Fall enrollment/housing values from prior year, ex. Calendar year 2014 crime against fall 2013 enrollment.

Fall Enrollment

2013 – 13,973

2012 – 13,733

2011 – 13,145

Fall Housing

2013 – 4,137

2012 – 4,135

2011 – 4,259
