Executive Summary Statement:

The first quarter of 2020 saw an increase to the military-affiliated student population; a total of 2,341 students, bringing the military-affiliated count to 13% of the total UNCW student population. Our biggest growth area was in Graduate Programs (65% increase since 2016). Since the Office of Military Affairs (OMA) was created in 2016, UNCW’s military-affiliated student population has grown by 47%.

Quarterly activity (performance measures, etc.):

- Melanie Nelson, (Military Student Services Specialist) is now teaching UNI 201 for transfer students and is working towards a military only section being offered in the future.
- OMA staff continue to partake in local, statewide and national hiring events for military-affiliated students in the form of panelists, presenters and connectors centering on best practices. Events include WholeVet, NC Works, NC4ME, Onward to Opportunity (O2O).
- The Chancellor appointed Military Affairs Advisory Board has been established for the 2020-21 academic year and includes representation from all areas of campus.

Special Accomplishments and Highlights:

- The Office of Military Affairs is currently facilitating four interns working this fall semester. One is currently deployed (and is the Graduate Conflict Management Program) to Chile; one is working on campus assisting with the military credit for prior learning group; one is working in/around Ft. Bragg and our AUSA Chapter Affiliation; and one is working at Camp Lejeune with the Wounded Warrior Battalion.
- OMA, on behalf of UNCW has successfully applied for and received approval to participate in the U. S. Army’s Concurrent Admissions Program (ConAP) https://recruiting.army.mil/g7-9-conap/.
- The Office helped coordinate the identification and attendance of local WWII Veterans attending the “First WWII Heritage City Designation” at the USS Battleship North Carolina, sponsored by The Greatest Generation Foundation https://www.tggf.org/ and was presided over by POTUS.

Challenges and items of special focus:

- Challenges include programming resources for military-affiliated students remotely. Veterans Hall is seeing lower occupation by students and off campus organizations due to increased online learning as a result of COVID 19.
- Special focus is on UNCW adding the Yellow Ribbon Program for military students, which will help with recruitment, retention and graduation of military students.
- OMA and University faculty will focus on the establishment of a Military Affairs, Government and Intelligence Council (MAGIC) to advance research, academic programming, student career development and work towards UNCW becoming a national leader in strategic areas involving military or intelligence-related R&D.
- Establishment of the Veterans Hall Legacy Brick Paver fundraiser to be implemented before the Grand Opening Ceremony in 2021.
Executive Summary Statement:
During the past quarter, the Office of University Relations continued to focus extensive creative and logistical resources on communicating the university’s expanding COVID-19 health and safety protocols. Working in collaboration with university leadership and subject matter experts across campus, OUR developed the Best for the Nest guidebook (PDF); Best for the Nest website; prepared and/or edited and issued more than 20 campus messages; designed and managed production of more than 200 signs related to health and safety protocols; produced public service announcements about hand hygiene, physical distancing standards and the usage of face coverings. The OUR team also managed more than 130 media requests concerning the pandemic and other topics.
