

PEER EDUCATOR APPLICATION

910-962-CARE

The CARE Peer Educators are part of CARE: Collaboration for Assault Response & Education, a department of the Division of Student Affairs at UNCW responsible for interpersonal violence prevention and response. CARE Peer Educators are trained to raise awareness and educate fellow students about relationship issues, relationship abuse, sexual assault, stalking and harassment.

CARE Peer Educators' programs include but are not limited to: Family Feud, Got Consent, I-CARE, Upstander Response Ability, and Pillow Talks. Additional activities Peer Educators participate in include, but are not limited to: tabling around campus, the Clothesline Campaign (Survivors' T-Shirt Art), and Speak Out events.

CARE Peer Educators are...

- Volunteers who are interested in being trained to deliver programs and presentations about interpersonal violence issues.
 - Willing to attend a two-day training and weekly hour-long meetings.
 - Willing to cover a minimum of three CARE events per semester of volunteering with CARE.

Complete all the information below and bring to the CARE office on the 2nd floor of DePaolo Hall or email it to care@uncw.edu. Once the application closes, you will be contacted to schedule an interview.
