GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP APPLICATION

Graduate assistantships are awarded based on academic merit and/or need. To make sure you are considered for need-based awards, apply for financial aid as early as possible. For information on applying for financial aid, go to www.uncw.edu/finaid/apply.htm.

Graduate assistants work either 5 or 10 hours/week and are paid $2,785 or $5,750 over the period August through May. Assistantship assignments are awarded based on academic qualifications, GMAT scores, and special skills. All graduate assistants are required to attend graduate assistantship orientation in August (details will be provided).
