Content Knowledge Assessments

Ten multiple choice questions will be imbedded in the BA in Economics capstone classes in ECN 321 and ECN 322 theory courses for assessment of economic principles and models. ECN 321 is offered in the fall semester and ECN 322 is offered in the spring semester. The questions will be nongraded items in the final exam. Review of the assessment and associated changes to curriculum will be conducted by the economics faculty.

Actions Taken:

Economics faculty will gather data at least two years before review.
