Specific Nature of Disability Accommodations Being Requested:

Empty box for describing disability accommodations with horizontal lines.

In most instances, housing adjustments due to ADHD and Learning Disabilities are not appropriate. Housing accommodations for students with documented disabilities are determined based on the need for equal opportunity; this determination is not made based upon a perceived benefit to the student.

Appropriate Disability Documentation must be submitted with Disability Accommodation Request.

Medical and psychological documentation will be confidentially maintained by Disability Resource Center as per its policies, and will not be shared with The Office of Housing and Residence Life.

Students with Service or Assistance Animals planning to live in campus housing should also submit FORM 1.A with their Disability Accommodation Request for University Housing

[DO NOT WRITE BELOW LINE—FOR DRC OFFICE PURPOSES ONLY]

The requested accommodation is supported by documentation provided to DRC:
