

TEACHING-LICENSE-ONLY IN MUSIC EDUCATION

(Candidate holds a baccalaureate degree in music)

All applicants must pass the following:

___	Audition on major instrument or voice (equivalent of upper level qualifying jury). Contact the appropriate studio instructor for repertoire recommendations. Also see the Music Student Handbook.
___	Theory exam. Equivalent of MUS 300 and MUSL 300 final exam. Contact the Theory Coordinator for details.
___	Piano proficiency exam. See the Music Student Handbook for details.
___	Two music history repertory listening exams. See the Music Student Handbook for details.

Following the administration of the above exams and an assessment of all transcripts, a Plan of Study will be created for each applicant by the Music Education Program Coordinator in consultation with the music faculty. Where deficiencies are evident, appropriate courses will be required.

All courses on this list must be completed or official evidence of equivalent courses shown. The following music courses are offered only in the designated semester (See UNCW Undergraduate Catalogue for pre-requisites):
