

Enrollment in teacher education is down 27% over five years in North Carolina. Why are fewer people choosing to become a teacher?

What drew you to the teaching profession?

What can North Carolina do to draw more people to the teaching profession?

