USAC IL/WI Motion

Whereas the Information Literacy and Writing Intensive components of University Studies are formative competencies students should encounter early in their undergraduate careers, at an advanced level, and in their majors;

Be it resolved that the nine hours allocated to each competency be designated as a combination of general education (3 hours) and graduation (6 hours) requirements.