

[Motion 2014-10-M03]

The Faculty Senate Steering Committee offers the following motion in light of the search for a new Chancellor:

The UNCW Faculty Senate asks the UNCW Chancellor Search Committee to seek the following qualities in their candidates for Chancellor:

A commitment to scholarly values and the diverse mission of a public comprehensive university, with a tradition of substantial research activity combined with a hallmark of teaching excellence as expressed in the university mission statement;

Academic scholarship and teaching credentials, or professional credentials, that are tenurable at the level of full professor;

Outstanding leadership qualities, including:

- Successful leadership in higher education administration
- Commitment to open discourse and shared governance with faculty, staff, and students
- Commitment to embracing, celebrating, and resourcing long-standing and unique characteristics of UNCW that have made it such a special place to work and learn.
- Personal integrity, intellectual curiosity, fairness, resilience, good humor, and energy
- Collaborative leadership style that emphasizes transparency and fairness
- Significant demonstrated ability to secure funding from government and private sources
- Determination to expand and seek increased support for undergraduate and graduate programs
- Demonstrated record of achieving diversity goals in all aspects of university functioning.
- Open communication style that encourages input from all levels of the university at formative as well as summative levels of decision-making.
- Record of effectiveness with a broad range of constituencies, including Boards of Trustees, community stakeholders, and local and state legislatures.
- Commitment to upholding UNCW's core values as we respond to future exigencies.
- Commitment to recruiting and retaining the highest quality faculty, staff, students, and administrators
