Policy for Affordable Care Act graduate student, draft policy

University policy for graduate student employment as a graduate research or teaching assistant (GRA or GTA) is 20 hours per week. The Graduate School must approve exceptions to the 20-hour limit for Graduate Assistants, up to 29 hours from all sources, during the academic year. Graduate students working temporary jobs on campus other than as Graduate Assistants and in summer are also limited to 29 hours.

Exceptions to exceed the 29-hour graduate student limit from all sources must be provided in advance, in writing, by the appropriate College Dean or Vice Chancellor and must include the College Dean's or Vice Chancellor's agreement to cover the resulting healthcare costs.

Discuss retention policy for undergraduate grades of “C”

Discuss grading criteria on graduate course syllabi

IV. Old Business

Policy & Planning Committee – further discussion on the Grade Appeal Process, Transfer Credits and Continuing Education credits
