

GENDER STUDIES & RESEARCH CENTER

An interdisciplinary and intersectional community

MISSION STATEMENT

The Gender Studies and Research Center is an interdisciplinary and intersectional community of students, scholars, and advocates committed to social justice and equity for minoritized peoples.

The Center works with campus, local, and wider community partners through online teaching, research support, programming, and service activities that further social justice and work to combat social inequality at every level.

CENTER OFFERINGS

- Front Porch Forums on Gender Justice
- REACH (Radical Equity and Collective Healing) Mentoring Workshops
- Resource Library
- Collaborative/Study Space
- Research + Travel Scholarships
- Community Partnerships
- Internships

FOR MORE INFO

Come see us: BEAR HALL 211

Find us on the web: www.uncw.edu/gsrc

Contact us: 910.962.7870

WHY WOMEN'S & GENDER STUDIES?

The WGS program at UNCW is an interdisciplinary field that helps students cultivate critical self-reflective skills to be able to build community, lead others, and enact change in diverse workplaces across many professions.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

·Minor in Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies (18 credit hours)

- Required Course: WGS 210: Intro to Women's Studies (3 credit hours)
- Core courses from ANT, ENG, HST, PAR, SOC, or WGS (6 credit hours)
- Elective courses from across disciplines (9 credit hours)

Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in WGS (18 credit hours)

- Required courses: WGS 510: Feminist and Queer Theories & WGS 513: Feminist and Queer Research Methods (6 credit hours)
- Core courses from across disciplines (9 credit hours)
- Required exit course in a Directed Independent Study or Internship (3 credit hours)