

University Honors Requirements

TRANSFER OR LATE ENTRY; CATALOG YEAR: BEFORE FALL 2021

Honors University Studies classes are like general education classes, but taught as Honors version. Ex.: HON Chemistry 101. Each one is worth 3 credit hours.

As a transfer student, you are exempt from one of these course requirements.

Honors University Studies

~~_____~~

_____

_____

TOTAL: 6 CREDIT HOURS

Honors Seminars

~~HON 110~~
FIRST-YEAR SEMINAR; 3 CH

HON 210, 211, or 212
3 CREDIT HOURS

HON 120, 121, or 191
1 CREDIT HOUR

HON 120/121
1 CREDIT HOUR

TOTAL: 5 CREDIT HOURS

To complete your 3 credit hours of Honors electives, you could take another HON University Studies class. You could take three HON 120 seminars. You could contract a class (get professor permission to do additional Honors work). Or get the requirement waived when you study abroad for a semester or take a graduate-level class.

TOTAL: 3 CREDIT HOURS

3 Extra HON Hours

PICK ONE:

Three 1hr HON classes

Contract class

One 3hr HON class

Graduate class

Study abroad

TOTAL: 6 CREDIT HOURS

Departmental Honors

6 total credit hours

Take over 2 or 3 semesters

Departmental Honors, also known as your Honors thesis project, counts for 6 credit hours. It will show up on your schedule/transcript as 499 of whatever your major is (ex. INT 499, BIO 499, SPN 499).