The University Retirement Engagement Newsletter

The PIER is a quarterly retirement engagement newsletter designed to empower you with “Planning, Investment, Engagement, and Retirement” information, resources, and tools to help you with your financial wellbeing, both present and future. Check out The PIER retirement engagement website, by clicking here.

Sneak peek of the great PIER Articles

National Financial Literacy Month

April is National Financial Literacy Month, the perfect time to learn more about managing your financial life. Learn how to become more financially astute by clicking here.

Don’t Be Scammed

During current global and economic challenges scams and fraud are on the rise. Learn more about how to increase your awareness and help reduce scammers from targeting you by clicking here.

Build a retirement income plan that will last

Today’s retirees are more likely than previous generations to have an active retirement lifestyle. To learn more about the building blocks Fidelity shares are needed to build a retirement income plan that will last, click here.
Spring Cleaning – Post Pandemic Style

Spring cleaning should go beyond the living space – spring clean your finances too. Financial spring cleaning doesn’t have to be difficult. Click here to gain a few tips that can assist with your financial spring-cleaning efforts.

CAPTRUST continues to closely monitor the after math of Russia invading the Ukraine has impacted the global economy and stock markets. Read more about CAPTRUST’s perceptions on how global unrest impact financial markets by clicking here.

TIAA suggest investors to remain focused on their long-term goals but remain attuned to their potential shifts in and disruptions to inflation, growth, energy prices, and global financial markets. Learn more about TIAA’s insights on the Ukraine invasion and investment implications by clicking here.

Fidelity takes a deep dive into researching how Ukraine, the Fed, and investors’ money are affecting each other during this current crisis. To learn about a few takeaways shared by Fidelity, click here.

Find more vendor communication and educational webinar opportunities in the vendor engagement corner by clicking here.

Click the images here to find more valuable retirement information, resources, and vendor contact information.

Meeting today's financial challenges shouldn't mean postponing tomorrow's dreams.