GLOBAL CITIZEN STUDENT AWARD

PURPOSE

The Office of International Programs has created a Global Citizen Student Award to recognize students who demonstrate a commitment to internationalization and global engagement at UNCW.

CRITERIA

To be considered for this award, a nominee must be a full-time student at UNCW, be in good academic standing, studied, interned or volunteered abroad, or involved with an on-campus international program. Applicants must have made significant contributions toward implementing UNCW's strategic goal: Promote a diverse and inclusive culture and a global mindset throughout the university.

Some of the questions you may want to ask yourself, but are not limited to, any of the following:

- How have you developed your global footprint?
- How are you recruiting other students to study abroad?
- Have you served as a mentor for international students?
- Engaged in any global research
- Been a conversation partner with ESL students?
- Taken classes that have made you develop a deeper appreciation for the interconnectedness of our world?
- How have these experiences prepared you to graduate as a global citizen?

AWARD

Recipients of the Global Citizen Student Award will receive $750, credited to the student's account. A hand blown glass art Award and recognition at a reception during the 2018 Cornerstone Student Awards Banquet in April.
