SUMMER FACULTY-LED

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Spend your summer undertaking an international internship in your field of interest, gaining valuable résumé building experience, and living in one of the world's most exciting cities!

ACADEMICS

Students will earn three credits for engaging in a 20-hour/week professional internship experience and an additional three credits for a course taken from London South Bank University (LSBU) for a total of six academic credits. The LSBU course will last for four weeks and the internship experience will last for all six weeks of the program. Internships are available in a variety of areas, including: media, political science, exercise science, marketing, accounting/finance, English literature, arts, anthropology, law, health & wellness, publishing, history/museums, peace and conflict studies, biology, journalism, public relations, economics, theatre, psychology, advertising, film, mental health/rehabilitation, and more. Typically, the coursework and internship occur on Monday-Thursday, allowing students with three day weekends to enjoy life in London and explore Europe.
