

ALFRED & ANITA SCHNOG TRAVEL AWARD FOR HOLOCAUST STUDIES

2021 Student Travel Award Application

Application Deadline: February 22, 2021    Awards Announced: March 5, 2021

The Alfred and Anita Schnog Travel Award for Holocaust Studies provides grants of up to $4,000 to travel to international sites OR up to $3,000 for travel to domestic sites to conduct faculty-mentored research into the societal, cultural, and geo-political forces that enabled the Holocaust to occur as well as its impact and legacy on human interactions. The award is available to UNCW juniors, seniors, or graduate students with a GPA of 3.0 or above. For the 2021 academic year, up to three awards will be granted. Please note that due to the pandemic, all student travel must be approved by the CAS Dean's Office and Academic Affairs.

Successful applicants will demonstrate how the proposed project will explore a component of the Holocaust and how the project relates to their academic interests and studies at UNCW. Students granted Schnog Travel Awards, along with their faculty mentors, will meet (virtually) with their fellow awardees before departing. After their return, awardees will provide written and/or oral presentations of their research to a university audience. All travel must be completed by August 15, 2021.
