

ENGLISH LANGUAGE CENTER

LANGUAGE AND CULTURE PROGRAM

FACULTY

Kateryna Forynna
forynnak@uncw.edu
American Culture Instructor
M.A. World Languages, Literatures and Linguistics
M.A. Applied Linguistics

Bio

Kateryna has been teaching English in intensive programs and managing higher education student support programs for over 10 years. Kateryna currently directs the English Language Center and teaches a World Languages and Cultures course for UNCW exchange students and an American culture course for Fulbright Teaching Fellows. Kateryna first immersed herself in American culture in 2009 when she was an exchange student and Global Undergraduate Exchange Program fellow. Having experienced all stages of cultural adaptation, she is happy to share her experience with international students and help them become acclimated to life in the U.S.

Anna Ouchchy
ouchchya@uncw.edu
Integrated Skills Instructor
M.A. Teaching

Bio

Anna received her Masters of Arts in Teaching from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and has been teaching English language learners for the past 18 years. She has worked with students of all ages, from children to adults. Anna has taught Reading and Writing courses in the English Language Center since 2018.

Ron Murphy
murphyr@uncw.edu
Professional Communication Instructor
M.A. Educational Reading, Language and Literacy
ESL Certification

Bio

Ron has been teaching in the English Language Center for 6 years. Some of the courses he has taught are Listening, Speaking and Critical Thinking, Conversation and Culture, and Business English. Ron worked previously in radio, television and motion pictures and brings his knowledge of the broadcasting industry into the classroom. The enthusiasm that he brings to the classes reflects his desire to make a difference and inspire his students.