

German Major Worksheet

2012-2013 Catalogue

Applied Learning Requirement: To satisfy the applied-learning requirement for foreign language, a student must complete 6 credit hours of study abroad (at the intermediate level or above) or 3 credit hours of internship, directed individual study, practicum, honors, or service learning.

Oral Communication Requirement: To satisfy the oral communication requirement for the B.A. degree in German studies a student must successfully complete GER 307 or GER 495.

Requirements for a Major in German Studies: Including GER 201 and GER 202 or the equivalent. Thirty hours must be completed at the 300-400 level. GER 307 is required. No more than 6 hours may be obtained by means of a German Studies course taught in English. At least 6 hours must be at the 400 level. No more than 3 hours obtained by means of GER 491 or GER 498 will count towards the major. Total: 36 hours

Additional Information: A grade of “C-” or better is required in each course counted toward the major and a “C” (2.00) average or better for all courses counted toward the major. All majors must complete a series of German proficiency exams in order to graduate.

Special Notes:

- You can receive supplementary credit for 201 and 202 if you place into a higher course but do not transfer in any other German credits (such as AP).
- Ger 292 is a trial course and counts as a 300-level course.
