SOLICITED TEACHING PRESENTATIONS

At the request of Dr. Candice Bredbenner, Associate Professor in the UNCW Department of History, I conducted two research workshops, one for each her Fall 2013 HST 290 course sections—The United States in the Progressive Era, 1890-1920. I introduced to the students the availability and use of Progressive Era primary digital resources that included government documents, public domain monographs, newspapers, and magazines through a variety of digital tools and databases including Google Books, the Internet Archive, JSTOR, UNZ.org, the HathiTrust, and the Digital Public Library of America, among others.

TEACHING HONORS

John Pope Center for Higher Education “Spirit of Inquiry” Award, Fall 2011 for the PLS 501 “Statistics for Public Managers and Policy Analysts” course taught in Fall 2010. Awarded Second Place from among 67 courses nominated in the State of North Carolina.

RESEARCH GRANTS

UNCW Summer Research Initiative, 2010. Subject: “Investigating Homeowners’ Loan Corporation Lending in Metropolitan Cleveland, Ohio during the Great Depression.” Award of $3,500. This research grant led to one accepted publication, one publication that is currently under review, and three publications that are in various stages of research.

UNCW Cahill Research Grant, 2015. Subject: “Understanding the impact of McCarthyism on American Public Administration Institutions during the 1950’s and 1960’s.” Award of $4,800. The intent of this research is the publication of one book/monograph or several peer-reviewed articles. The research entails extensive archival research at several location in the United States for the purpose of evaluating the impact of McCarthyism but also to undertake a more encompassing look at key issues and events of American public administration history. A 4-day research trip to Denver, CO—the location of the Archives of the National Municipal League—was completed in March of 2016: 3,000 pages of archival materials were digitized for research purposes. A 5-day research trip to Lawrence, KS—the location of the Records of the International City Management Association—was completed May of 2016: 4,000 pages of archival materials were digitized for research purposes. Also, 400 pages of material were received from the Columbia University Rare Book & Manuscript Library to support this research. Related to but not funded by this grant is a planned trip to New York City where I intend to visit the Rare Book and Manuscript Library at Columbia University Library, which contains extensive archival material from the estate of Richard S. Childs, the “founder” of the city manager form of government in the United States. I also intend to visit the Institute of Public Administration Collection and the Luther Gulick Papers which are housed at the Archives & Special Collections of Baruch College at the City University of New York.

BOOK CURRENTLY UNDER CONTRACT
