Make your Blackboard course ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) compliance by adding “alt” tags to any images. Alt tags are an attribute of the image and meant to be an alternative for non-visual browsers when they come across images.

In the text editor click on the image icon.

Browse your computer to find the image you want to insert.

In the ‘Title’ area, add a description of the image. Click ‘Insert’.