Professional Licensure Disclosure

Watson College of Education programs that prepare students for licensure in the field of teaching/education are designed to meet the licensure standards set by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction. Students seeking licensure in another state are advised to contact the appropriate licensing board in that state to determine specific requirements of guidelines for reciprocity. At this time, UNCW cannot confirm whether a particular licensure program meets requirements for licensure outside of the State of North Carolina. For a list of the state departments of education that oversee professional teaching licensure, see the U.S. Department of Education website - State Contacts page.

For questions, please contact Ms. Logan McKnight, Internship and Licensure Coordinator via email: mcknightl@uncw.edu.

FNP Graduates will be eligible to take the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) or the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners (AANP) certification exam for Family Nurse Practitioners which enhances their opportunity for advancement in the field. They will be able to seek approval to practice FNP in North Carolina or other state of choice.

Please note that there may be additional requirements to be eligible to practice outside of North Carolina. At this time UNCW may or may not be able to advise whether a program meets requirements outside of North Carolina. Prior to enrolling, please discuss this important topic with your program of interest.
