6:30PM STUDENT PANEL & DISCUSSION

8 - 11PM WATCH ELECTION RESULTS

LUMINA THEATER & SHARKY'S GAME LOUNGE

FISHER STUDENT CENTER @ UNC WILMINGTON

Come participate in an important night for our democracy alongside your peers, colleagues, and members of your local community. Help us promote CIVIC EDUCATION and PRODUCTIVE DIALOGUE through a panel discussion at 6:30pm followed by a viewing of the election results on the 466 ft² movie screen! Moderated by political science professor Dr. Aaron S. King, the panel will include students representing UNCW's College Democrats, College Republicans, Student Government Association, The Seahawk student newspaper, Feminist Student Alliance, Centro Hispano, and Sexuality and Gender Alliance. Pizza, snacks, and drinks provided. FREE to students and OPEN to the PUBLIC (donations welcome)!

Sponsored By: Department of Public and International Affairs, College of Arts and Sciences, Osher Lifelong Learning Institute, Pi Sigma Alpha Honor Society, Office of Student Leadership and Engagement, and Women's Studies and Resource Center.
