

PRE-LAW

UNCW PRE-PROFESSIONAL ADVISING
IN THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC AND
INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

PRE-LAW ADVISING

Information sessions with law school admissions officials, attorneys, and current law students to learn what it takes to get into law school. And whether it is right for you.

Admissions guidance and LSAT preparation.

Find Pre-Professional Programs at www.uncw.edu/professional or preprofessional@uncw.edu

Contact Dr. Julie Lane UNCW Pre-Law Advisor, at lanejd@uncw.edu

PRE-LAW MINOR

A firm foundation in the law, focusing on constitutional law .

Many courses taught like law classes, including briefing cases and discussion.

Legal supplement to any major.

A chance to develop a close relationship with pre-law faculty, who might be essential recommendation writers for law school applications.

Contact Dr. Julie Lane, Pre-Law Minor Advisor, at lanejd@uncw.edu.

The Pre-Law Minor is not a requirement for law school applicants..

Pre-Law Minor Requirements:

24 hours of coursework

- ◇ 15 hours of core PLS courses
- ◇ 3 hours of skills courses (including approved legal internship)
- ◇ 6 hours of related courses