

A multi-disciplinary, post-baccalaureate program for professionals, practitioners and students who wish to gain a greater understanding of conflict in both domestic and international settings

Gain skills required to facilitate high conflict meetings and scenarios:

- interpersonal conflict
- third-party facilitation
- mediation
- larger group conflict

Participate in the certificate program while enrolled in a master's degree program in another discipline at UNCW or any other accredited university

Take courses in the master's program in conflict transformation and management at the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in Port Elizabeth, South Africa

(c) Nick White/Getty Images

UNIVERSITY of
NORTH CAROLINA
WILMINGTON

CONFLICT MANAGEMENT & RESOLUTION

Remonda Kleinberg, Ph.D., LLM
Conflict Management and Resolution
Program Director

tel 910.962.4254 | kleinberg@uncw.edu | uncw.edu/cmr

Cover image: Getty Images/iStockphoto
EEO/AA Institution. 250 copies of this public document were printed at a cost of $214 or $.86 per copy (G.S. 143-170.1)

A hand holding a pen, with the word "Succeed" written in black marker on a white surface. The word is circled in red. The background is a blurred image of a person in a suit.

Succeed

Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Conflict Management & Resolution

uncw.edu/cmr

Electives

International Track

- Conflict Management and Resolution
- Conflict in International Politics
- International Law and Dispute Resolution
- Ethics in International Affairs
- Development, Change and Conflict
- Problem Solving and Decision Making
- Violence Studies
- Terrorism and Counterterrorism
- Hostage Negotiation
- Propaganda, Political Warfare and Influence Operations
- Missile Defense and Its Role in Conflict Resolution
- The Psychology of Terrorism
- International Organizational Behavior
- Strategic Communication: Analysis of Persuasion and Cultural Principles and Techniques
- Technology and Security

- Space Technology and Security
- Restorative Justice

Domestic Track

- Conflict Management and Resolution
- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Public Management and Facilitation
- Ombudsmanship
- Family Violence Over the Lifespan
- Violence in the 21st Century: Diversity Matters
- Labor Law and Relations
- Problem Solving and Decision Making
- The Psychology of Terrorism
- Trauma Awareness and Transformation
- Restorative Justice

Two-part, blended-course model

- 1. Short and intense (two-day to two-week) set of initial lecture/seminars (each course) utilizing face-to-face instruction, video conferencing and mobile access
- 2. Self-paced but guided learning in a distance education format

One two- to four-week instructional block each semester

Designed to provide core knowledge, skills and abilities through a set of modules focused on the theoretical and applied approaches to conflict management

REQUIREMENTS

18 conflict management and resolution credit hours

3 core courses (9 hours)

Students develop core skill sets in conflict management, conflict types, negotiations, decision making and intercultural dispute resolution

- Conflict Management Theory
- Mediation and Conflict Resolution Practicum
- Decision Making and Negotiation

ADMISSION

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in the United States or its equivalent in a foreign institution based on a four-year program
- Strong academic record in any field with an overall GPA of 3.00 or "B" average or the equivalent professional experience

Students must submit the following to the UNCW Graduate School:

- An application for graduate admission
- Official transcripts of all college work (undergraduate and graduate)
- 500-word essay on the applicant's goal in pursuing graduate work in conflict management and resolution
- Three letters of recommendation from an academic institution or the applicant's relevant professional field