

MILITARY

Undergraduate Minor in International Affairs

Contact: Dr. Remonda Kleinberg

Email: kleinberg@uncw.edu

Phone: 910-962-4254

Location: Leutze Hall
Room 269

PEACEKEEPING

Requirements

If you are interested in international affairs, then this minor is for you. You will gain knowledge on international affairs along with theories and practical application.

Public & International Affairs requires students to complete 21 semester hours from the following:

Core Courses:

- PLS 220 Introduction to International Relations
- PLS 425 International Politics

Category 1 Electives: Choose 3 courses from the following (9 hours)

- PLS 218 Ethics in International Affairs
- PLS 222 Contemporary International Political Issues
- PLS 422 Contemporary American Foreign Policy
- PLS 423 National Security Policy
- PLS 424 International Security
- PLS 426 International Law
- PLS 427 International Organizations

- PLS 429 International Political Economy
- PLS 440 Great Decisions Leadership Series
- PLS 498 Internship in Political Science (placement in an international agency or State Department)

all courses in International Relations not listed but offered by Public and International Affairs may be substituted manually.*

Category 2 Electives: Choose 1 course from the following (3 hours)

- PLS 230 Introduction to Comparative government and Politics
- PLS 330 Political Systems of Africa
- PLS 331 Politics of Developing Nations
- PLS 332 Politics of Central America & the Caribbean
- PLS 335 European Political System
- PLS 336 Political Systems of Russia & Eastern Europe
- PLS 338 Politics of the Middle East
- PLS 339 Political Systems of Asia

Category 3 Electives: Choose 1 course from the following (3 hours)

- PLS 294 Transnational Political Study Abroad I
- PLS 317 Political Thought of Asia
- PLS 334 Revolutionary Movements
- PLS 428 Global Terrorism
- PLS 494 Transnational Politics Study Abroad II
- HST 301 Foreign Policy of the United States
- HST 379 European International Relations
- HST 380 The Cold War: An International History
- ECN 426 International Trade and Finance