

Hi, Pre-Law Students!

We hope you are off to a good start to the spring semester of your pre-law journey! Please read through this email for exciting announcements and opportunities, including upcoming events and school program information.

We are excited to introduce our new advisors to the Pre-Prof team!

Erin Neal

Erin is a pre-professional advisor at UNCW, and has been with the university since November 2016. She has previously worked as a pre-health advisor at Florida State University, in addition to other advising roles. She loves working with students interested in a professional health or law program after undergrad and helping them along their journey to be a competitive applicant. She received her bachelor's degree from Concord University in Business Management, and her master's degree from Radford University in Student Affairs/Higher Education. Having previously worked at Virginia Tech, Erin is a huge Hokie fan, and is glad to be within driving distance for football games again. In her free time she enjoys travelling to Texas to see her 2 nieces, going to the beach, or painting.

Patti Schultz

Patti is a pre-professional advisor at UNCW. Before coming to UNCW's Pre-Professional Programs, Patti was an academic advisor with UNCW's School of Nursing and College of Health and Human Services. While at UNCW, she has been a psychology professor/lecturer and an instructor for Freshman Seminars. Patti earned her bachelor's degree in Psychology from Houghton College. She has also earned a master's degree in Education Psychology from Baylor University and a master's degree in Business Administration from UNCW. In her free time, Patti enjoys traveling internationally, flying planes, and hiking with her two dogs, Ruger and Piper.
