Degree Audit Update

We are still validating blocks (testing to see if the majors were scribed correctly, according to the catalog). Campus will be on the current degree audit system (u.achieve) through May, June and August freshman and transfer orientations. Degree Works should go live after drop/add in August, but will only include new transfers and freshman who fall under the Fall 2016 catalog year. Current students will remain on the u.achieve system.

A few academic advisors are invited to a “first look” at their majors, in order to assist with this phase of testing. Please do not confuse this with Degree Works audit training. Once we are ready to go live, we will provide audit training for everyone via print, video or in-person.

Annual Staff Retreat

On March 17th, the Office of the Registrar held their annual staff retreat. It was an eventful day, filled with personal and professional development activities, as well as multiple team building exercises. We completed the FISH Philosophy training with Karen Pappas, who taught us how to be there, play, make their day, and choose our attitudes. We also participated in a game of Health and Wellness Jeopardy, brought to you by Krystle and Jessica, who are peer educators with the Health Promotions Department. These students were absolutely incredible! If you are looking for a fun, interactive, and informational lesson in the health and wellness arena, we highly recommend them! In addition, we finished our day with a UNCW

Scavenger Hunt, that took our group through a series of challenges in and around the Union. It was quite the competition, but there could only be one winner crowned. Teamwork, heart, and hustle were the leading factors in securing this championship. Let's give a round of applause for Albie “Rocky Balboa” Lange, Jon Reece, Paula Greene, Jaron Collins, and Naamah Noble!

Attention Faculty!
