

How to Use the Term GPA Calculator

The GPA Calculator allows the student to calculate their future GPA and different GPA scenarios.

1. From your degree audit, click on "GPA Calc."

The screenshot shows the UNCW University of North Carolina interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with "Back to SeaNet" and "Catalogue". Below this is a search bar with "Find" and "Student ID" fields. To the right, there are dropdown menus for "Name", "Degree" (set to BS), and "Major" (set to Business Admini). Below the search bar, there are several buttons: "Worksheets", "Plans", "Notes", and "GPA Calc". A large black arrow points to the "GPA Calc" button. Below the buttons, there is a "Format:" dropdown menu set to "Student View" and two buttons: "View" and "Save as PDF".

2. Click on "Term Calculator"

The screenshot shows the GPA Calculator interface. At the top, there are four buttons: "Worksheets", "Plans", "Notes", and "GPA Calc". Below these buttons, there is a list of options: "Graduation Calculator", "Term Calculator", and "Desired GPA calculator". A large black arrow points to the "Term Calculator" option.

3. Your Current GPA, Credit Hours Earned, and your currently enrolled courses will show.
