Come to Our Open Forum

We will host two Open Forums in the James Hall Auditorium. The first will be at 3:30 on Thursday, September 30th , and the second will be at 3:30 on Friday October 1st. Since fall 2007, we have hosted these Open Forums to tell you what is new in our world and to hear suggestions and feedback from you. We enjoy the opportunity to showcase some of the new developments we are working on, but the feedback from you is the real value for us. The group never fails to come up with some good ideas, as well as useful comments, compliments, and criticisms. Our attendance list is used as a listserv for our office and that list continues to grow. However, there are always seats available in the auditorium, so please join us if you can. All are welcome. Hope to see you there!
