Spring 2012 Registrar's Office Open Forum

Thursday, February 9th from 3:30pm-4:30pm

James Hall Admissions Auditorium

We hope you can join us to learn about new developments in the office, ask us questions, and give us feedback on our services. Our format has changed in that we will just have one forum rather than two in the past.

Major Changes in Major Changes!

Effective spring 2012, the University has adopted a policy to suspend curriculum changes during key advising points in the semester. This applies to changes/additions of catalog year, major, minor, and/or concentrations. No opportunities for change will be allowed during these times. For Spring 2012, this will be March 1st, 2012 thru April 23rd, 2012

This policy changed to allow your advisors to adequately prepare for advising you under your current curriculum.

NEW! Beginning Monday Jan 23rd, students may Declare/Change their major through MySeaport

Further information will be available on Jan 23rd at:

<http://www.uncw.edu/reg/students-majorChg.htm>

Thanks to all instructors for turning in grades by the Fall 2011 deadline!

We only had 214 unreported grades out of 61,297 gradable enrollments (excluding sections approved for extended grading).

Great job to all!
