

Grant Training Center

Professional Grant Development Online Training

This two-day interactive workshop, led by the Grant Training Center, addresses the overall strategic plan for writing grants. It will cover the diversity of donors, key search engines, and converting ideas into fundable projects or research. After the training, you will understand how to navigate the world of grant procurement, identify the critical sections of successful proposals, and demonstrate the excellence and innovation that propels your projects or research beyond other submissions.

May 12-13, 8:30 am-4:30 pm
