

International Criminal Justice

Summer 2015

Program Overview

A study of International Criminal Justice Systems in Europe: Featuring visits to The International Criminal Court at The Hague and French and Swedish Trial and Appellate courts. Students will engage in site visits, lectures and discussions concerning national and international criminal justice issues and contrasting approaches to criminal justice and crime policy.

Academics

This study consists of one course entitled: "International Criminal Justice" (CRM 294-800) Students will receive a letter grade and, for successful completion of the course, six (6) credit hours.

Gothenburg, Sweden

Program Activities and Features

Our study begins in Paris with an introduction to French culture and legal system. In Paris, we will visit the Palace of Justice and the French Police Museum. While in Strasbourg, located near the German border, we will attend hearings at the European Court for Human Rights and visit a WWII Concentration Camp. From France, we travel to The Netherlands where we will be introduced to Dutch culture and visit The International Criminal Court at The Hague. Visits to Stockholm and Gothenburg in Sweden will round out our study of International Criminal Justice.

International Criminal Court

Paris, France

Location

A scenic canal tour of Amsterdam only begins to reveal the beauty of this city, enhanced by such sites as the Van Gogh Museum and World Famous Keukenhof Gardens. The Hague is the seat of the Dutch Government and the de facto capital of the United Nations. Students may want to spend their free time here enjoying the sun and Dutch cuisine under a cabana at Schrevening Beach Resort or marvel at a life-sized sandcastle. In Paris, students may want to explore the West Bank, stroll along the Champs-Elysees, or visit Notre Dame Cathedral. In Sweden, students will have time to visit an amusement park, observe the changing of The Swedish Guard, or take a boat ride among the famous archipelagos. Everywhere students will have superb local cuisine from which to choose and a myriad of opportunities to experience local culture, handicrafts, art, and architecture.
