WORKING WITH COMMUNITY PARTNERS: OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

THE APPLIED LEARNING AND TEACHING COMMUNITY (ALTC) IS HOSTING A WORKSHOP ABOUT WORKING WITH COMMUNITY PARTNERS ON TUESDAY, APRIL 14TH FROM 3:30-5:00PM IN THE AZALEA COAST ROOM OF THE FISHER UNIVERSITY UNION.

The workshop will begin with short presentations from faculty members from a variety of departments and schools at UNCW about their experiences working with community partners. The focus will be on the logistics of how to effectively work with community partners, how it can benefit you and the community, and what to do with the results of your collaborations.

Following the presentations will be a question and answer session where you will have the opportunity to ask the panelists questions. This workshop is geared towards those interested in getting involved with or improve their experiences working with community partners and in the community.
