

Black lives matter!

Dispelling Myths and Checking Realities

Dr. Cameron Lippard, Associate Professor of Sociology at Appalachian State University.

Dr. Kenneth Sanchagrin, Assistant Professor of Sociology at Appalachian State University.

Since 2012, the Black Lives Matter movement has attempted to inform the American public that Black women and men face disproportionate levels of violence by law enforcement. Drs. Cameron Lippard and Kenneth Sanchagrin will compare and contrast the myths and lived realities within this growing social movement.
