

Mohin-Scholz

LGBTQIA Resource Office

Hi all,

I am very pleased to share the news that our amazing colleague, Ann Rotchford, was awarded the following at the end of this academic year:

The Mohin-Scholz LGBTQIA Resource Office's 2020-20201 Bo Dean Faculty Staff Award

To recognize outstanding efforts of an individual at UNCW working towards creating an inclusive, respectful, and safe climate for members of the LGBTQIA community. The award recipient should demonstrate a sustained and tangible impact on the campus community. Examples of such efforts might include:

- * Advocating for LGBTQIA individuals, groups, and issues on campus.*
- * Coordinating an academic department or staff unit that promotes the professional advancement of LGBTQIA faculty and staff.*
- * Creating projects and events that promote greater awareness of LGBTQIA issues.*
- * Designing activities and programs that convey personal safety and mutual respect for and among LGBTQIA students, faculty, and staff.*

AND

The UNCW Charlie Maimone Sustainability Leadership Award

In recognition of outstanding leadership in sustainability and environmental stewardship. The award is given every year to a UNCW employee that exemplifies these qualities of promoting environmentally sustainable causes, social justice and economic vitality.

Congratulations, Ann!!

Cheers,
Mike
