UNCW is a Masters (Comprehensive) I:
According to The UNC Policy Manual the standard faculty teaching load is six (6) organized class courses per faculty member in a given academic year. The 6-class requirement is equal to 18 credit hours per academic year made up of nine (9) credit hours per each academic year semester.

UNCW Faculty Workload:
According to Academic Affairs Faculty Workload Policy the full workload of a full-time (1.0 FTE or 100%) faculty member is the sum of that individual’s teaching, scholarship and service (including administrative) activities. An assignment of 9 credit hours per semester is considered standard teaching load for faculty also engaged in scholarship, service or research. Faculty not engaged in scholarship, service or research have a teaching load of 12 credit hours. Each course being equal to 3 credit hours of instruction.

UNCW Supplemental Pay:
Supplemental Assignments are considered temporary assignments lasting no more than 12 months.

In-Contract Supplemental Pay generally cannot exceed 20% of Institutional Base Salary (IBS). If operational need or other compelling circumstances arise, supplemental pay may exceed 20% threshold but must be approved by the appropriate Vice Chancellor. In addition, supplemental pay funded by federal awards must have sponsor written approval and must be included in Proposal Budget and Budget Justification. Federally funded supplemental pay in-contract shall not exceed 20% of IBS in any given month.

Out-of Contract Supplemental Pay shall not exceed the annual base salary (IBS) divided by the number of contract/appointment months multiplied by the number of out-of-contract months.
Out-of-contract supplemental pay for any out-of-contract month cannot exceed the IBS divided by number of contract/appointment months.
For example:
A nine (9) month EHRA Faculty employee with annual salary of $45,000 would have a summer salary cap of $5,000 per each summer month ($45,000/9= $5,000) and a summer three-month cap of $15,000 (3 months x $5,000). Same applies to <9, 10 or 11 months on a prorated basis.

EHRA/SHRA:
Employees with less than 1.0 FTE (Full Time Equivalent) are eligible for supplemental pay at the part-time rate until they reach 1.0 FTE. Once 1.0 FTE is reached supplemental pay limit is applied.

Salary Increases:
Supplemental pay will not be adjusted retroactively to the period of assignment.

Awards:
Supplemental payments based on prizes or gifts for which some competitive process with no expectation of service or employee effort. Awards cannot be paid from general fund. [IT IS IMPORTANT TO NOTE THAT AWARD PAYMENTS ARE INCLUDED UNDER THE SUPP PAY EARNINGS CODE, WHICH MAKES THEM INDISTINGUISHABLE FROM SUPPLEMENTAL PAY FOR WORK/EFFORT. NOMINAL AWARD AMOUNTS ARE NOT VIEWED AS HAVING A SIGNIFICANT IMPACT ON EFFORT REPORTING.]

Release Time:
[This is equivalent to the term Buyout] Time spent on contracts and grant projects during the academic year [where the Buyout] releases the personnel expenditure on general funds is not supplemental compensation.

Course Reduction:
A reduction in faculty regular teaching load on a temporary basis, as approved by Department Chair is not supplemental compensation. [Such a release paid for by contract or grant is also considered a Buyout.]

Employment of Related Persons:
The department or office responsible for supplemental pay assignment must document any known relationship in accordance with UNCW Policy 08.190 - Employment of Related Persons. The department or office must certify that neither individual will have supervisory responsibility of the other and will not be in a position of influence or control of the terms and conditions of another related person’s assignment. In such cases a written management plan must be developed, reviewed, and approved as required in Policy 08.190 prior to supplemental pay process.
