The staff senate met on August 12, 2020 via Zoom. All staff are invited and welcome to attend each meeting. Below are some of the updates that were shared with staff.

HUMAN RESOURCES REPORT
Presenters: Liz Grimes, Molly Nece
• Staff that are not student-facing should continue to telework so that de-densification of campus can continue to take place
• Since March, approx. 400 virtual classes were offered through Dare To Learn Academy in collaboration with campus partners and the Employee Leadership, Learning & Engagement team. Courses continue to be added to the website and everyone is encouraged to browse/register
• Review the Return to Campus website for resources which help employees return to campus safely
• Full Cycle 2020-2021 goals are due Aug 31, 2020. More can be found on the Full Cycle Performance Management website
• Leave provisions continue to change. Have you thanked your leave-keeper today?

HEALTH REPORT
Presenter: Katrin Wesner-Harts
• Stay committed to the “3 W’s”, Wear, Wait, and Wash
• A Data Dashboard is published on the Best for the Nest website

PARKING REPORT
Presenter: Sharon Boyd
• Staff who continue to telework are encouraged to evaluate their parking needs. Those already on payroll deduction will be automatically renewed, unless a decision is made to opt-out by September 30, 2020. More information can be found on the Parking website

UNC SYSTEM RACIAL EQUITY TASK FORCE
Update from Dawn Brown
• The second public UNC System Racial Equity Task Force meeting will be Tuesday, September 15, 2020 at 2pm
• The task force is focusing on three areas: (1) equity in the student academic experience, (2) equity-minded faculty, staff, and administrators, and (3) safe and inclusive campuses and communities
• The email inbox for sending suggestions/comments is active. All staff are encouraged to send feedback.
