A NEW look for UNCW Student Accounts E-bills beginning with Fall 2015

In January, UNCW Student Accounts requested feedback from students and authorized users on a new proposed E-bill format for the 2015-16 academic year. The great majority who responded were in favor of the new format. The new e-bill format can be viewed on the Student Accounts webpage under “Understanding My E-bill”, along with an explanation of each section. Student charges and payments will now be summarized by type. Individual transaction detail can still be found under the E-bill Activity tab.

Fall TealPay Payment Plan Information

UNCW offers “in house” payment plans. TealPay allows students and Authorized Users to break down education expenses into easy-to-manage monthly installments, rather than one lump sum payment. It’s simple and convenient. Fall TealPay 5 and 4 tuition payment plans will be available beginning July 8, 2015.
