

RSO Advisors of the Year

As part of the Dub Awards, this award is given to the Registered Student Organization (RSO) advisor who consistently contributes their time and energy for the betterment of the organization. This advisor goes above and beyond the responsibilities established for them within the organization's constitution. This person assists the group into realizing their potential, helping them achieve their goals, mentors' individual members, and leads by example.

The nominee must be a volunteer advisor (one who is not an advisor due to their job description or payment given from the group). Ineligible advisors include, but are not limited to ACE, SGA, Media Organizations, and RHA.

2020: Amanda Gabbard (The Circle K International Club)

- Coordinator for Community Engagement (Office of Student Leadership & Engagement)

2019: Paul Willeboordse (Student Ambassadors)

- First Year Admissions Counselor (Office of Admissions)

2018: Sister Rosemary McNamara (Campus Catholic Ministry)

2017: Dr. Tracy Meyer (Pi Sigma Epsilon)

- Professor (Cameron School of Business).

2016: John Osinki (Veterans Education & Transition Support)

- Nursing Librarian (Randall Library)