The format of the proposal:

- Proposal Abstract: One to three pages (double-spaced) of text explaining the focus and intentions of the thesis, to include genre, form, table of contents (if applicable), and anticipated length of the manuscript. Large and complicated projects, especially those requiring planning and research, should be outlined in accordance with the expectations of the committee. The objectives and scope of the project should be manageable and clear to all concerned.
- Writing Sample: Include a writing sample from your proposed thesis: For prose, one complete chapter or story (double-spaced); for poetry, 10 pages (single-spaced).

Please email your abstract and writing sample to the three members of your thesis committee and submit the completed thesis proposal cover sheet for their approving signatures. Return this signed form, and email the abstract and writing sample, in a single pdf document, to Lisa Bertini.
