

A Town Hall Meeting

Why the Humanities are Important for a Democracy presented by

- ▶ UNC Program in the Humanities and Human Values
- ▶ Cape Fear Community College
- ▶ National Humanities Center

featuring

Brandon Guthrie

Chair of Humanities and Fine Arts, Cape Fear Community College

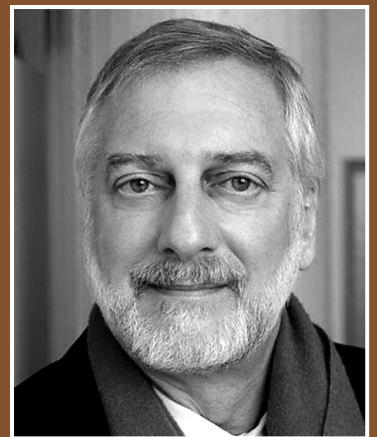

Lloyd Kramer

Professor of History and Faculty Director, Program in the Humanities, UNC-Chapel Hill

Lynn Mollenauer

Department Chair and Associate Professor of History, UNC-Wilmington

Robert Newman

President and Director, National Humanities Center

MODERATOR: Frank Carter, Chair of Humanities and Fine Arts (retired), Cape Fear Community College

WHEN

Thursday, September 29, 2016
7:00–8:15 pm

WHERE

Wilson Center at Cape Fear Community College
703 North 3rd Street, Wilmington, NC 28401

CONTACT

For further information, please email Brandon Guthrie at bguthrie@cfcc.edu or call 910-362-7431.

This event is free and open to the public.

